Section 5 - Replacement of Officers

In the case where the IEB President office is vacant, the Vice-President will immediately fill the position.

All other IEB positions found to be vacant shall be filled immediately by appointment by the IEB. The acting officer will complete the remaining office term.

All IEB officer materials shall be turned over to the new officer within one month of the date of replacement in the most cost-effective manner possible unless other arrangements are made with the approval of the IEB. Failure to do so may result in (at the discretion of the IEB) a change of Alumna status to Alumna-Passive or Alumna-Restricted, a refusal to reimburse any outstanding expenses until all materials are turned over, and/or a fine.

If the materials are not delivered in person or postmarked within the required timeframe, the IEB will set a fine not to exceed $250 US and send a fine letter to the outgoing IEB officer via certified mail. If payment and materials are not delivered in person or postmarked within 30 days of receipt of the certified mail, additional fines may be assessed not to exceed $500 US plus the value of the missing items. A second fine letter will be sent to the outgoing IEB officer via certified mail. If payment and materials are subsequently not delivered in person or postmarked within 30 days of receipt of the second fine letter, the Sorority may take the outgoing officer to mediation, court, or use a collection agency/process to recoup its materials and fines.

In any arbitration or court proceeding, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. In addition, the outgoing officer shall be responsible for payment of agency/attorney fees and interest associated with the IEB's efforts to collect Sorority materials and money owed through a collection process.

Section 6 - Impeachment of IEB Officers

Bylaws Article IV & Director Removal Policy

Any IEB officer may be impeached for failing to comply to the Constitution or for negligent performance of duties. The impeaching procedure shall be initiated by any Active Chapter, or any IEB Officer. The impeaching chapter or officer shall take the vote of the Active Chapters and IEB officers regarding removal of the negligent officer. The vote shall be a three-fourths majority of the IEB officers and the active Chapters (one vote per chapter). The vote shall be verified by two International Executive Committee Chairpersons and the result forwarded to the IEB. The Organization shall recognize the result of the vote and shall declare the officer removed. The results shall be published in the next IEB newsletter.

All IEB officer materials shall be turned over to the remaining IEB within two weeks in the most cost-effective manner possible. Failure to do so may result in (at the discretion of the IEB) a change of Alumna status to Alumna-Passive or Alumna-Restricted, a refusal to reimburse any outstanding expenses until all materials are turned over, and/or a fine.

If the materials are not delivered in person or postmarked within the required timeframe, the IEB will set a fine not to exceed $250 US and send a fine letter to the outgoing IEB officer via certified mail. If payment and materials are not delivered in person or postmarked within 30 days of receipt of the certified mail, additional fines may be assessed not to exceed $500 US plus the value of the missing items. A second fine letter will be sent to the outgoing IEB officer via certified mail. If payment and materials are subsequently not delivered in person or postmarked within 30 days of receipt of the second fine letter, the Sorority may take the outgoing officer to mediation, court, or use a collection agency/process to recoup its materials and fines.

In any arbitration or court proceeding, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. In addition, the outgoing officer shall be responsible for payment of agency/attorney fees and interest associated with the IEB's efforts to collect Sorority materials and money owed through a collection process.

Section 7 - Election of IEB

Bylaws Article IV & Elections of Board of Directors and Executive Committee Policy

The IEB officers shall be elected at regular conventions of Alpha Omega Epsilon by a majority vote according to Article IV, Section 3. The following groups of offices shall be elected in the same election cycles:

- a. Group A shall be defined as President, Secretary, Interchapter Relations Officer, and Director of Publications.
- b. Group B shall be defined as Vice President, Treasurer, Alumnae Relations Officer, and Director of Expansion.

They shall be installed at the close of the convention at which they are elected, in accordance with the Ritual. They shall hold office until the installation of their successors. The following procedures are used:

I. Nominations

One year prior to the Election Year, the Elections Committee shall open the “Nominations for Elections” by requesting nominations of at least one qualified alumna candidate for each International Executive Board office, from the International Executive Board, and by publishing to all members a “Call for Nominations”.

The “Call for Nominations” shall include the deadlines for nominations, the information needed for an official nomination, the contact information of where to send the nomination, the Elections Committee contact information, a list of offices on the International Executive Board, and the responsibilities of each office.

Any alumna member may nominate candidates for an office on the International Executive Board by petition, provided that the following requirements have been met:

- a. The nominee is an alumna member and is qualified for the position per Article IV, Section 2.
- b. The nominee has given written consent to be placed on the ballot.
- c. A written petition for the nominee and the nominee’s consent shall be submitted to the Elections Committee before “Nominations for Elections” are closed. Included with the petition is a one-paragraph explanation why the nominee is an excellent candidate for the given office.

No member may be nominated for more than one position.

Should an office or multiple offices have no nominees, the Elections Committee shall publish a list of current nominees, and a “Request for Volunteers” for the offices on the International Executive Board. Eligibility qualifications shall also be included.

The International Executive Board shall continue to research nominees.

When the nominees are found, the Elections Committee shall immediately publish the revised nominee list.

If no nominees are found within the three-month period prior to convention, the International Executive Board shall continue efforts for replacements of officers.

Any nominees found within the three-month period prior to convention shall be candidates for appointment following elections.

II. Voting

“Nominations for Elections” are closed on January 1st, and the Elections Committee shall immediately distribute:

- a. The nominee list;
- b. The nominators’ written petitions;
- c. The written explanation of why the candidates are good for the office;
- d. The nominees’ written consent;

- e. A voting ballot with due date;
- f. A call for “Nominees by Appointment”;
- g. A list noting the requirements for nominations; and
- h. A list noting the requirements and responsibilities for each office.

The call for “Nominations for Appointment” is the announcement that there is an office(s) that have no nominees. In this case, nominations will be accepted for persons that qualify to be an officer, but have not been nominated for elections by the due date.

Any alumna member may nominate candidates for appointment to the International Executive Board by petition, provided that the following requirements have been met:

- a. The nominee is an alumna member and is qualified for the position per Article IV, Section 2.
- b. The nominee has given written consent to be placed on the ballot.
- c. A written petition for the nominee and the nominee’s consent shall be submitted to the Elections Committee three weeks prior to convention. Included with the petition is a one-paragraph explanation why the nominee is an excellent candidate for the given office.

Original election ballots and “Nominations for Appointment” are to be postmarked by July 1st. Original ballots and “Nominations for Appointment” postmarked after that date will not be accepted.

Reproductions of original ballots will be deemed invalid.

Each voting member may write on the ballot the name of any alumna who she chooses, and who is qualified for the position, even though that alumna member was not nominated.

Election procedures at convention are as follows:

- a. The Election Committee Chairperson or the IEB President will read aloud the duties and responsibilities for each office to the assembly.
- b. The following order of officers will be used during this election procedure: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Interchapter Relations Officer, Alumnae Relations Officer, Director of Expansion, and Director of Publications.
- c. Each IEB officer candidate will be allowed up to 3 minutes to address the convention assembly regarding their qualifications for the nominated office. Candidates for President will be allowed up to 5 minutes for their address. If there are multiple candidates for a specific position, the other candidate(s) will wait outside of the convention assembly while each candidate is being questioned so that no one candidate has an unfair advantage.
- d. Write-in candidates may petition the Convention Committee via a letter delivered by the postal service for the right to speak at convention. The Convention Committee will allow write-in candidates to speak, if time allows in the convention time budget, on a first-come first-served basis by postmark.

Elections of
Board of Directors
and Executive Committee
Policy

- e. After all speeches have been given, chapter delegates and alumnae present at convention will be allowed a 5-minute question period per candidate. If there are multiple candidates for a specific position, the other candidate(s) will wait outside of the convention assembly while each candidate is being questioned so that no one candidate has an unfair advantage.
- f. If time remains in the question period and all candidates have been questioned, the presiding officer can entertain a motion from the floor to open up a 1-minute question period for a specific candidate. Question periods will not extend beyond the time allotted according to the convention agenda.
- g. After all candidates have been questioned by the assembly, an open 10-minute discussion period for each position will commence. All candidates for the given IEB officer position will be asked to leave the convention assembly.
- h. If time remains in the discussion period and all positions have been discussed, the presiding officer can entertain a motion from the floor to open up a 2-minute discussion period for a given position. Discussion periods will not extend beyond the time allotted during the convention agenda.
- i. Voting:
 - i. Voting will be by secret ballot with each chapter and alumna to receive one vote each.
 - ii. Alumnae absentee ballots postmarked by the required date will be available and counted in the vote totals. If an alumna submitted an absentee election ballot and is present at convention, her absentee ballot will be counted as her recorded vote, and no additional vote on elections will be allowed at convention. The absentee ballots will not be opened until voting begins.
 - iii. Each voting member may write on the ballot the name of any alumna who she chooses, and who is qualified for the position, even though that alumna member was not nominated. Votes for ineligible candidates will be declared invalid. Illegible votes will be declared invalid.
 - iv. Votes declared invalid will be counted toward the votes cast, but will not be eligible votes.
 - v. Ballots will be collected and counted, together and not separately, by the IEB President and the Elections Committee Chairperson. In the event the Elections Committee Chairperson is not present at convention or is the IEB President, the IEB will select another alumna to serve to assist in counting ballots. The IEB will appoint a third alumna to verify the voting results.
 - vi. The IEB President casts her vote but her vote is only used in case of a tie. The IEB President will cast her vote on a ballot of a different color.
 - vii. In the event that no candidate achieves a majority vote, a run-off election will be held between the two eligible candidates with the highest vote totals. During a run-off election, votes may only be cast for the two eligible candidates or the voter may abstain from the vote.

- viii. Any unfilled positions will be filled by appointment by the IEB as defined in Article IV, Section 5 of the International Constitution.

Each IEB position will be voted on separately and the winner announced before voting on the next position.

A majority vote elects a candidate into the designated office, provided she meets the qualifications stated in Article IV, Section 2.

Any candidate who is not elected may be considered as a write-in candidate for another position as long as she is qualified for the position.

The election results will be published in the next newsletter, the International Executive Board monthly minutes, and on the Alpha Omega Epsilon website.

III. Installation of Officers

A nominee elected to an office is an "Officer-Elect".

An "Officer-Elect" does not take office until she has taken the Oath of Office.

The International Executive Board officers remain in office until her successor has taken the Oath of Office.

IV. Officer Transition

All IEB officer materials shall be turned over to the newly elected officer within one month of the date of replacement in the most cost-effective manner possible unless other arrangements are made with the approval of the newly elected IEB. Failure to do so may result in (at the discretion of the IEB) a change of Alumna status to Alumna-Passive or Alumna-Restricted, a refusal to reimburse any outstanding expenses until all materials are turned over, and/or a fine.

If the materials are not delivered in person or postmarked within the required timeframe, the IEB will set a fine not to exceed $250 US and send a fine letter to the outgoing IEB officer via certified mail. If payment and materials are not delivered in person or postmarked within 30 days of receipt of the certified mail, additional fines may be assessed not to exceed $500 US plus the value of the missing items. A second fine letter will be sent to the outgoing IEB officer via certified mail. If payment and materials are subsequently not delivered in person or postmarked within 30 days of receipt of the second fine letter, the Sorority may take the outgoing officer to mediation, court, or use a collection agency/process to recoup its materials and fines.

In any arbitration or court proceeding, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. In addition, the outgoing officer shall be responsible for payment of agency/attorney fees and interest associated with the IEB's efforts to collect Sorority materials and money owed through a collection process.

Section 8 - Ritual

Ritual and Badge

Section 3 - Chapter Constitutional Vote

Amendments to the Chapter Bylaws will be enacted through the following procedures:

- a. Oral presentation to the chapter;
- b. Written presentation to the chapter;
- b. Discussion of the amendment at the chapter meeting;
- c. Voting at the next chapter meeting;
- d. Written presentation and approval by the International Judiciary Committee.

Amendments must be approved by 3/4's majority vote by secret written ballot. The votes will be counted by the President and an appointed chapter representative.

Section 4 - Quorum

Quorum is required to conduct all business including chapter meetings and all votes.

Quorum at International Convention is 2/3's of the eligible chapter representatives, IEB and alumnae.

Quorum for an Active Chapter requires a majority of all active-actives and active co-ops.

Section 5 - Meeting Vote

A meeting vote may be brought up by any member and seconded according to Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, during any organization meeting.

After the vote is brought to the floor, there will be a time of discussion monitored by the President.

Voting
Procedure

When the President feels the topic has been sufficiently discussed, she will call for the vote by vocal ballot (aye or nay). Majority vote passes the vote.

Section 6 - Membership Election Vote

A membership election vote is for election to candidate status and for election to active status. A membership election vote is a majority vote by secret ballot by the Active Chapter quorum. If 10 percent or more of the votes are "no" votes, unless a chapter's active membership is at or below 10 members, the vote does not pass. When a chapter's active membership is at or below 10 members, if two or more of the secret ballots are "no" votes, the vote does not pass.

If a Membership Election vote for active status does not pass, proceedings to withdraw an invitation to membership are initiated per Article II, Section 4 of the International Bylaws.
